

ILSLEDA 2016 INTENSIVE COURSE

VALORIZING TERRITORIAL RESOURCES IN COMPETITIVE AND SUSTAINABLE WAY: PRACTICES AND TOOLS

ILS LEDA - International links and services for local economic development agencies - launches the 2016 Intensive Course: Valorising territorial resources in competitive and sustainable way: practices and tools.

The course responds to the demand of actors who participated with ILSLEDA to the exhibitions in the KIP Pavilion at the Universal Expo Milano 2015. In particular, it is realised in collaboration with Mediterraneo sociale, the consortium of social enterprises in the Campania region, and with the contributions of FORMAPER, the Agency of the Milan Chamber of Commerce, and the INNER network of the Biologic Districts.

The course, in Italian, is addressed to researchers and university graduates, local development professionals, officials and technicians of public administrations interested to know the ILSLEDA working tools.

The 30 hours course will be held from 11 to 15 April 2016 in Naples, with lectures, readings, bibliographic suggestions, exercises and working groups accompanied by the ILSLEDA experts.
