

THE KIP INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED WITH THE JUAN MONTALVO AWARD

December 10, 2014 the President of the KIP International School, Luciano Carrino, has been recognized with the prestigious Award Juan Montalvo

The Juan Montalvo Award is organized every year by the Consulate General of Ecuador in Milan and the Ecuadorian Centre of Art and Culture in Milan, in partnership with the Department of Sociology and Social Research at the Università degli Studi – Milano-Bicocca and the Department of International and Diplomatic Organizations of the University Campus Cielis. The International Award recognizes high level productions in the fields of poetry, narrative and photography inspired by: History, geography, migration and protection of the environment.

The KIP International School was awarded for its contributions in field of Intercultural and International Relations. This section of the Award recognizes the best humanitarian intervention year, to authoritative bodies, for its ongoing commitment to realize the ideals of Peace, Social Justice and Human Dignity and other significant results in the field of international relations between peoples of different nations and cultures.

